

TRAVELLING SAUDI ARABIA: A PHOTOGRAPHIC MEMOIR

Presented by:

Yearly Flower Festival – Yanbu Industrial

2014 Guinness World's Record – Largest Flower Carpet – 10K+ sqm

Sun down at the Red Sea

Marina – Yanbu Industrial

Villa

Everything stops for prayer, 5 times a day

Dates, dates and more dates...

Mosque in Thuwal

Kids playing in the mosque's square, Yanbu Industrial

Some “bites” from the West

Views of a Heavy Industrial Park

380 KV Electrical Substation

A partial view, the building of Medical City – Near Jeddah - Y2015

The ever-expanding Electric Grid

King Fahad Fountain, the world's tallest one - Jeddah

Tall rocks formation near Qasim

Tall mesa close to Qasim

Desert pristine sands

Sheep and goats in the central desert

Mommy camel and kid

Fast moving herd, close to Riyadh

Fertile land in Qasim

American style irrigation equipment

Date palms and Oasis in fertile Qasim

Royal palms close to the Red Sea

Bedouin camps and pets North of Riyadh

View of the capital city Riyadh from the Kingdom Tower

The new Kingdom Tower site in Jeddah - Y2015
It has been planned to be the world's tallest building when completed.

Riyadh's continuous growth

At the front, the late King Abdullah Bin Abdulaziz with HE Prince Al Waleed , the Chairman of Al Waleed Philanthropies.
The current king, HRH Salman bin Abdulaziz can be seen in the back, left side.

A leading charity organization in the Middle East based in Riyadh

Entrance of Kingdom Tower, Prince Al Waleed's base of operations in Riyadh

Rbk with her Dad in the Red Sea

Thank you Saudi! God Bless You too...